

Jim Duncan
Senior Vice President
Strategy, Sales and Marketing
Meggitt Equipment Group
Tel (805) 298-2311
trirace55@gmail.com

Jim is the senior vice president for strategy, sales and marketing for the Meggitt PLC's Equipment Group division.

Meggitt is traded on the London exchange (MGGT) and member of the FTSE100. It is a global, $2Billion, 10,000 employees, corporation that serves the aerospace, defense, energy and industrial markets.

The Equipment Group division is a portfolio of international business that provides products and services. In this role Duncan is also responsible for commercial matters and program management. Prior to this assignment he has served as the president and general manager of Meggitt businesses; Safety Systems and the Thermal Systems group. Jim has also served in other senior positions at Meggitt where he has been responsible for providing growth through acquisitions, technology and strategic business development.

Over the course of his career Duncan has held business development and marketing positions with leading aerospace, defense and commercial companies; Rockwell Scientific, Teledyne Ryan Electronics, Teledyne Electronic Systems and Kaman Aerospace. Duncan has also co-founded start-up companies who serve the consumer electronics market.

Jim has served on the board of the General Aviation Manufacturers Association and Quallion LLC.

He also is Meggitt's appointed director of government relations in California.

Duncan is a former U.S. Naval Aviator. He flew missions in the Kaman SH-2F and was a flight and mission instructor for the Sikorsky SH-60B Anti-Submarine Warfare helicopter at the time of its entry into service.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Science from the U.S. Naval Academy and completed the Meggitt Oxford University leadership course.